

Application Form for Fuel for the Fight and Food for the Fight programs

brought to you by

Winneshiek County Celebration of Life, a not for profit organization, is dedicated to the health and well being of women and men in our area. Our mission is to promote awareness and early detection of disease through education and financial support of preventive and screening services. Through the generosity of local businesses, individuals and memorials, we are able to provide gasoline and grocery grant program to area men and women. Please nominate someone you may know, or even yourself, that could benefit from our program. Please complete the entire form.

Nominees Name: _____

Nominees Address: _____

To the best of my knowledge the nominee is:

- Female or Male
- Age of 18 and older
- In active treatment for cancer
- and is either a resident of Winneshiek County, or his/her family doctor is located in Winneshiek County.

I understand that they may receive a one time $200 value gasoline card and $100 value grocery card per calendar year. Grants will be awarded on a first come first serve basis. If WCCOL's designated funding is exhausted by December, new grant monies will be available in January of the next year.
